

NRG Energy, Inc. Completes Sale of Audrain Facility to AmerenUE

March 29, 2006

PRINCETON, N.J.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--March 29, 2006--NRG Energy, Inc. (NYSE:NRG) has completed the sale of the Audrain Generating Station, a gas-fired peaking facility in Vandalia, Missouri, to AmerenUE, a subsidiary of Ameren Corporation (NYSE:AEE). The purchase price was $115 million, subject to customary purchase price adjustments, plus Ameren's assumption of $240 million of non-recourse capital lease obligations and assignment of a $240 million note receivable. Of the $115 million in cash proceeds, approximately $20 million was paid to NRG.

Overall, the sale process removed approximately $412 million of assets and liabilities. Of this amount, $355 million remained on our balance sheet as of December 31, 2005, categorized as discontinued operations.

NRG Energy, Inc. owns and operates a diverse portfolio of power-generating facilities, primarily in Texas, and the Northeast, South Central and Western regions of the United States. Its operations include baseload, intermediate, peaking, and cogeneration facilities, thermal energy production and energy resource recovery facilities. NRG also has ownership interests in generating facilities in Australia and Germany.

AmerenUE is a subsidiary of St. Louis-based Ameren Corporation. The utility corporations of Ameren serve 2.3 million electric and more than 900,000 natural gas customers in a 64,000-square-mile area of Illinois and Missouri.
