Public Policy Engagement & Corporate Political Contributions

As an energy and services provider that primarily operates in competitive markets, public policy can significantly affect our business and industry. Accordingly, NRG, like most businesses, belongs to organizations and trade associations that may engage in lobbying activities to support initiatives relevant to our business.

Based on a review of the Company's internal records and discussions with senior management, the below list includes membership organizations and trade associations: (1) to which NRG paid $5,000 or more in membership dues in 2020; and (2) may have engaged in lobbying activities in 2020:

- California Manufacturers and Technology Association
- Independent Energy Producers Association
- Chemical Industry Council of Illinois
- Illinois Chamber of Commerce
- Illinois Competitive Energy Association
- Illinois Energy Association
- Illinois Environmental Regulatory Group
- Illinois Manufacturers Association
- Advanced Energy Management Alliance
- American Council on Renewable Energy
- Business Roundtable
- Ceres, Inc.
- Electric Power Supply Association
- Energy Professionals Association
- PJM Power Providers Group
- Utility Solid Waste Activities Group
- New England Power Generators Assn
- New Jersey Ratepayers United
- Princeton University's Andlinger Center for Energy & the Environment
- Independent Power Producers of New York
- New York League of Conservation Voters
- Regional Plan Association (<https://rpa.org/>)
- Allegheny Conference
- Auto Dealers Association of Greater Philadelphia
- Citizens Against Nuclear Bailouts
- Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce
- Apartment Association of Greater Dallas
- Association of Electric Companies of Texas
- Dallas Regional Chamber
- Greater Houston Partnership
- Greater Irving Las Colinas Chamber of Commerce
- North Texas Commission
