NRG Energy Stockholders Re-Elect Company's Director Nominees at 2009 Annual Meeting

Stockholders Reject Exelon Proposal to Expand Board of Directors

PRINCETON, NJ; July 21, 2009—NRG Energy, Inc. (NYSE: NRG) today announced that, based on the preliminary vote count at today's 2009 Annual Meeting, stockholders voted resoundingly to re-elect all of the Company's director nominees—John F. Chlebowski, Howard E. Cosgrove, William E. Hantke and Anne C. Schaumburg—to the NRG Board of Directors. In addition, NRG's stockholders have rejected Exelon's proposal to expand NRG's Board with its own slate of five Director nominees.

"NRG stockholders understood that this vote was all about value and they voted overwhelmingly to send a message that Exelon's current offer was unfair to NRG stockholders," said David Crane, President and Chief Executive Officer. "Our stockholders share the same commitment as the Company's management and its Board of Directors to maximizing value either through continued effective implementation of the Company's standalone business plan or through combination with Exelon or another interested party at a price that reflects the value NRG has created and our future growth prospects. We want to thank our stockholders for their support today."

Crane continued, "While we will continue to evaluate any combination offers from Exelon or others, we will focus on delivering record financial results, maintaining our substantial liquidity, returning capital to our stockholders and other key elements of our standalone strategy."

Following tabulation and certification by IVS Associates, Inc., the independent inspector of elections, the final results of the election will be announced in early August.
