Public Policy Engagement & Corporate Political Contributions

As a competitive energy provider, public policy can significantly affect our business and industry. Accordingly, NRG, like most businesses, belongs to organizations and trade associations that may engage in lobbying activities to support initiatives relevant to our business. NRG believes that its membership in such organizations is necessary to advance its long-term strategy and the interests of its stockholders, employees, customers and stakeholders.

Based on a review of the Company's internal records and discussions with senior management, the below list includes membership organizations and trade associations: (1) to which NRG paid $5,000 or more in membership dues in 2019; and (2) may have engaged in lobbying activities in 2019:

American Council on Renewable Energy	Illinois Chamber of Commerce
Independent Energy Producers Association	Business Roundtable
Independent Power Producers of New York	Texas Taxpayers and Researchers Association
PJM Power Providers Group	Greater Irving Las Colinas Chamber of Commerce
Texas Mining and Reclamation Association	Advanced Energy Management Alliance
Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce	Association of Electric Companies of Texas
Illinois Energy Association	Ceres, Inc.
Dallas Regional Chamber	Texas Competitive Power Advocates
Greater Houston Partnership	New England Power Generators Association
New England Clean Energy Council	DNV GL
Retail Energy Supply Association	Electric Power Supply Association
Utility Solid Waste Activities Group	Illinois Environmental Regulatory Group
Allegheny Conference	North Texas Commission
Illinois Competitive Energy Association	Illinois Manufacturers Association
Citizens Against Nuclear Bailouts	Ohioans Against Nuclear Corporate Bailouts/The
Chemical Industry Council of Illinois	Growth and Projects Fund

The Company's public policy efforts, including lobbying activities, political contributions and payments to membership and trade associations, are subject to oversight by the Board's Governance & Nominating Committee which consists entirely of independent, non-employee directors. Each year, the Committee receives and reviews an annual report on the Company's political contribution policy and practices regarding political contributions. NRG's 2019 corporate political contributions were as follows:
