North Texans Can Win Free Electricity for One Year from Reliant Energy
Company Launches Sweepstakes with 'til Midnight at the Nasher

DALLAS – North Texans have a chance to win free electricity for one year courtesy of Reliant Energy. As part of its sponsorship of 'til Midnight at the Nasher, a new outdoor concert and movie series at the renowned Nasher Sculpture Center in Dallas, Reliant will give away up to $5,000 of electricity to one sweepstakes winner.

Residents of North Texas can enter the sweepstakes in person at one of five concert and movie events at the Nasher through September or at www.reliant.com/nasher for a chance to win a $5,000 bill credit towards a new or existing Reliant electricity plan.

“Programs like 'til Midnight at the Nasher bring our community together through art and entertainment,” said Tom Gros, Senior Vice President, Reliant Energy. “Reliant’s support of 'til Midnight at the Nasher and our innovative energy solutions are just part of our overall commitment to improving our lives and our world.”

The concert and music series is set for 6 p.m. to midnight the third Friday of every month beginning May 21 and running through Sept. 17. Each evening features a live concert by one of the area’s hottest bands, a movie in the garden, food and a guided tour of the Nasher collection.

May 21	Band: A Hard Night’s Day Movie: Hard Day’s Night
June 18	Band: Emerald City Movie: The Wizard of Oz
July 16	Band: Petty Theft Movie: To Catch a Thief
August 20	Band: Cuvée Movie: Dreamgirls

About the Nasher Sculpture Center:

Open since October 2003, the Nasher Sculpture Center is dedicated to the display and study of modern and contemporary sculpture. The Center is located on a 2.4-acre site in the heart of the Dallas Arts District. Renzo Piano, a world-renowned architect and winner of the prestigious Pritzker Prize in 1998, is the architect of the Center's 55,000-square-foot building. Piano worked in collaboration with landscape architect Peter Walker on the design of the 1.4-acre sculpture garden.

The Nasher Sculpture Center was the longtime dream of the late Raymond and Patsy Nasher, who together formed one of the finest collections of modern and contemporary sculpture in the world. The Raymond and Patsy Nasher Collection includes masterpieces by Calder, de Kooning, di Suvero, Giacometti, Hepworth, Kelly, Matisse, Miró, Moore, Picasso, Rodin, and Serra, among others, and continues to grow and evolve.

The Nasher Sculpture Center presents rotating exhibitions of works from the Nasher Collection as well as special exhibitions drawn from other museums and private collections. In addition to indoor gallery space, the Center contains an auditorium, education and research facilities, a cafe, and a store.

The Nasher Sculpture Center is open Tuesday through Sunday from 11 am to 5 pm and remains open into the evening for special events. General Admission to the Center is $10 for adults, $7 for seniors, $5 for students, and free for members and children 12 and under. For more information, visit www.NasherSculptureCenter.org.
